STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The question of supply of adequate agricultural credit has assumed vital importance in the context of our aim to achieve self-sufficiency in food production as early as possible. While the co-operative movement has made considerable progress over the years in the matter of provision of agricultural credit, the progress has not been uniform throughout the country and there are certain areas particularly, the States of Assam, Bihar, West Bengal, Orissa and Rajasthan and the Union territories of Manipur and Tripura where the existing co-operative credit agencies are unable to take care of the full credit needs of the farmers. It has, therefore, been felt that supplementary arrangements should be devised for the supply of institutional agricultural credit in those parts of the States and Union territories where the co-operative credit agencies are not sufficiently developed.

2. The object of the Bill is to enable the States and Central Government to set up Agricultural Credit Corporations in the above-mentioned States and Union territories. It will also be open to any other State or Union territory to set up a Corporation on similar lines with the prior approval of the Central Government The proposed Corporation will provide short and medium term credit for periods not exceeding 5 years. Each Corporation will have an authorised capital between Rs. 1 crore and Rs. 5 crores, depending on the requirements of each State or Union territory, the share capital being contributed by the Central Government, the State Government, the Reserve Bank, the State Bank and its subsidiaries, other commercial banks and the Food Corporation. The Bill also contains provisions for the transfer of the business and assets and liabilities of the Corporation to co-operative societies and from the co-operative societies to the Corporation with the prior approval of the Reserve Bank and subject to the requirements of the respective State laws relating to the co-operative societies.

3. Opportunity is also being taken to amend the Agricultural Refinance Corporation Act, 1963, to enable that Corporation to provide necessary funds to the proposed Agricultural Credit Corporation for its lending operations. Notes on clauses explain in detail the various provisions of the Bill.

MORARJI DESAI.

NEW DELHI;
The 17th April, 1968.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. F.11/75/66-SB, dated the 26th April, 1968 from Shri Morarji Desai, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance to the Secretary, Lok Sabha.]

The President having been informed of the subject matter of Bill to provide for the establishment in the States and Union territories of Agricultural Credit Corporations and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto, recommends the introduction of the Bill in the Lok Sabha under clause (1) of article 117 and its consideration under clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution.

Notes on clauses

Clause 2 provides for the definition of certain words and expressions used in the Bill. Agricultural operation, in accordance with the proposed definition, will include animal husbandry, dairy farming, pisciculture and poultry farming.

Clause 3 seeks to empower the appropriate Government to establish an Agricultural Credit Corporation in each of the five States of Assam, Bihar, Orissa, Rajasthan and West Bengal and the two Union territories of Manipur and Tripura. It will also be open to any other State or Union territory to set up a similar corporation after obtaining the prior approval of the Central Government.

Clause 4 provides for the location of its head office and other offices and agencies of the Corporation.

Clauses 5 and 6 provide for the capital structure, ownership of the Corporation, allotment of shares and related matters. The authorised capital of each corporation will be between Rs. 1 and Rs. 5 crores, depending on the requirement of each State or Union territory and would be contributed mainly by the Central Government (30 per cent.), the State Government (20 per cent.), the Reserve Bank (20 per cent.). The remaining shares (30 per cent.) would be contributed by the State Bank of India and its subsidiaries, other commercial banks and the Food Corporation in such proportion as may be specified by the Central Government.

Clauses 7 and 8 seek to vest the power of general superintendence, direction and management of the affairs of the Corporation in its Board of directors, subject to such directions in matters of policy involving public interest as may be given by the Central Government in consultation with the Reserve Bank.

Clause 9 provides that the Corporation will be managed by a Board of directors consisting of 7 persons: the Chairman and the managing director to be nominated by the Central Government, two, one of whom shall be non-official, to be nominated by the Central or State Government, as the case may be, one director to be nominated by the Reserve Bank and two directors to be elected by the other shareholders in accordance with the prescribed rules from the residuary shareholders holding 30 per cent. of the shares.

Clause 10 provides for matters connected with the appointment, tenure and removal of the managing director.

Clauses 11 to 13 provide for the term of office of a director other than the managing director, disqualifications of a director and vacation of his office.

Clause 14 deals with the composition and functions of the Executive and other committees of the Board, subject to such rules as may be prescribed.

Clauses 15 to 18 provide for the meetings of Board of directors and its committees, fees and allowances of directors and members of committees and matters connected therewith subject to any rules and regulations that may be made for such purpose. It has been provided that interested directors shall not participate at these meetings.

Clause 19 specifies the classes of business which the Corporation will be authorised to perform. The principal business of the Corporation will be to grant loans and advances for periods not exceeding five years for agricultural and allied operations, to agriculturists, agricultural marketing and processing societies, Central Co-operative Banks, Co-operative farming societies or primary agricultural credit societies. It will also be authorised to perform other types of business which a co-operative bank is generally authorised to transact.

Clause 20 seeks to authorise the Corporation to obtain funds from the Reserve Bank on the same terms and conditions as a State Co-operative Bank and also from the Central Government, State Government or such other authorities and institutions as may be approved by the Central Government.

Clauses 21 and 22 seek to authorise the Corporation to accept deposits and lay down a limit for the total amounts of its borrowings and deposits in relation to its paid up capital and reserve fund.

Clauses 23 to 25 provide for the establishment by the Corporation of two separate funds, namely, Agricultural Credit Stabilisation Fund and Reserve Fund and the order of contribution that the Corporation may make to these funds out of its annual profits.

Clause 26 provides for the payment of dividend by the Corporation after allowing for the necessary provisions usually made by the bankers and after affording credit to the two funds.

Clause 27 provides for the investment of surplus funds of the Corporation in trustee securities or with the Reserve Bank or with any agency of the Reserve Bank or with any scheduled bank, State Co-operative Bank or Central Co-operative Bank in consultation with the Reserve Bank.

Clause 28 seeks to authorise the Corporation to make an application to the appropriate Government for the recovery of its dues as arrears of land revenue.

Clause 29 provides for the transfer of the business and the assets and liabilities of the Corporation to the co-operative societies or from the co-operative societies to the Corporation with the approval of the Reserve Bank, subject to the requirements of the respective State laws relating to co-operative societies.

Clause 30 deals with the general meeting of the Corporation.

Clauses 31 to 33 provide for the preparation of balance-sheet, profit and loss account, audit and submission of returns to the appropriate authorities.

Clauses 34 to 37 seek to apply to the Corporation certain provisions of the Banking Regulation Act, the Reserve Bank of India Act, and the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, in so far as they are applicable to a co-operative bank. These powers will enable the Reserve Bank to issue instructions to the Corporation in regard to its lending policy and other matters as are already available in respect of a co-operative bank.

Clause 38 provides that the Corporation shall be deemed to be a co-operative society for the purposes of Income-tax Act, 1961.

Clause 39 exempts the Reserve Bank and the Corporation or any officer of the Reserve Bank or Corporation from producing before a court of law the report of any inspection that may be carried out by the Reserve Bank in pursuance of the statute.

Clauses 40 to 42 deal with the declaration of fidelity and secrecy, indemnity of director and protection to officers for acts done in good faith.

Clause 43 provides that the Corporation cannot be taken to liquidation except by an order of the Central Government.

Clause 44 requires the Reserve Bank to submit a report to the Central Government on the working of a Corporation after five years.

Clause 45 seeks to empower the Corporation to appoint officers, advisers and employees for the purpose of the working of the Corporation and also provides for delegation of powers to its employees.

Clause 46 provides for the rules to be made by the Central Government in order to carry out the purposes of the Act.

Clause 47 deals with the matters which have to be covered by regulation to be made by the Corporation in consultation with the Reserve Bank.

Clause 48 provides for an amendment to the Agricultural Refinance Corporation Act, 1963, to enable the Agricultural Refinance Corporation to provide necessary funds to the Corporations for their operation.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 5 of the State Agricultural Credit Corporations Bill, 1968 provides that the authorised capital of each Corporation shall be between Rs. 1 crore and Rs. 5 crores and that 30 per cent. of issued share capital in the case of a Corporation established in a State and 50 per cent. in the case of a Corporation established in a Union territory, shall be contributed by the Central Government. The first proviso of the said clause also provides that the Central Government, along with the Reserve Bank and the State Governments, may take up the unallotted shares up to 30 per cent. in case these shares are not contributed fully by other shareholders, namely, the State Bank and its subsidiaries, other commercial banks and the Food Corporation. The size of the share capital fixed, from time to time, will depend on the requirements of each State or Union territory and on present indications the total contribution by the Central Government to the share capital of the Corporations may not exceed Rs. 7 crores in all, spread over in three or four financial years. Even if the Bill is enacted and brought into operation well before the end of the current financial year, it is not likely that the Corporations could be set up in more than one or two States and Union territories during the financial year. Hence the non-recurring expenditure by the Central Government during the current financial year is not likely to exceed, at the most, Rs. 1 crore. The balance of the estimated non-recurring expenditure of Rs. 6 crores is likely to be incurred in the subsequent two or three financial years. No recurring expenditure is envisaged.

Clause 20(b) of the Bill provides that the Corporations may borrow money from, among others, the Central Government. This is a permissive provision which authorises the Corporations to borrow money from the Central Government on such terms and conditions as may be determined. The Corporations will depend for their working funds primarily on the Reserve Bank and public deposits and it is not possible to envisage at this stage whether it will be necessary for the Corporations to borrow funds from the Central Government. If and when the Corporations find it necessary to request the Central Government to lend funds to them and if the Central Government decides to advance funds on terms and conditions as may be determined, there would be some expenditure from the Consolidated Fund, but it is not possible to indicate, before the Corporations have started functioning, what would be the order of such expenditure. In any case, amounts to be lent by the Central Government would be required to be repaid to it by the Corporations and over the years no net outgo from the Consolidated Fund on this account is envisaged.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 46 of the Bill empowers the Central Government to make rules for carrying out the purposes of the Act. The rules made under the Act may provide for the functions to be discharged by the executive committee; procedure with regard to the transaction of business at a meeting of the Board or of any committee constituted by it; procedure to be followed by the State Government for issuing a certificate for the recovery of any money due to the corporation; the manner in which the general meeting of the corporation shall be convened and held; the form and manner in which accounts of the corporation shall be maintained and its profit and loss account shall be prepared and the form in which the statement of its assets and liabilities shall be furnished. These are matters which relate to detail and as such the delegation of the legislative power is of a normal character.

2. Clause 47 of the Bill empowers the Board to make, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, regulations with regard to the duties which the managing director shall perform; the fees and allowances which may be paid to directors for attending the meeting of the Board or any committee thereof; duties, conduct, salaries and allowances and conditions of service of officers and other employees of the corporation; establishment and maintenance of provident and other benefit funds for the employees of the corporation; the conditions subject to which the amount in the Stabilisation Fund shall be utilised; the manner in which the amount in the Reserve Fund may be utilised; the restrictions which may be imposed by the corporation on any loan or advance made by it. With a view to facilitating the work of the corporation sub-clause (3) of clause 47 empowers the Reserve Bank to make the first regulations at any time within three months from the commencement of the Act; but the regulations so made may be rescinded or modified by the Board when it is constituted.

3. The delegation of the legislative power with regard to the matters for which regulations may be made by the Board or the Reserve Bank are matters of detail. The delegation of the legislative power is thus of a normal character.
